Enneagram - What's Your Type?

Over the years, I have learned that the more self awareness that you have about who you are, what motivates you, what your likes and dislikes are, what are your strengths and weaknesses, etc. the more that it helps you understand and relate to other people. I have become fascinated with personality type assessments and believe the information and insight that you can gain from understanding your type and those of your team can help you to become a stronger leader, better manager and better human being.

Aura Reading

Astrology, type of divination that involves the forecasting of earthly and human events through the observation and interpretation of the fixed stars, the Sun, the Moon, and the planets. Numerology is an ancient study that draws meaning from different numbers, number combinations, letters, and symbols in your life. This art can help us tap into the underlying patterns of the universe and reveal new truths about who we are.

We know that there is specific energy that surrounds our body that depicts the emotional and psychological state. But how do we know who owns what kind of aura? Well, it's as easy as playing with colors. Quite literally! Every person is blessed with different colored auras which represent their mood and energies. An aura reader is the one who decodes the meaning of these colors while relating it with other factors. This is used to depict one's overall aura personality and their current mental and emotional state. So now, are you curious to know which are these colors and what are their primary meanings? Let's get an overview for your reference.

WHERE'S MY REFUND?

At the risk of giving away my "nerd status", I found something VERY exciting last week! The IRS, "Where's My Refund" tool has expanded and will enable taxpayers to check on their refunds from 2019, 2020 & 2021. Previously, you were only able to check on current year refund status and with all of the processing delays due to the pandemic and stimulus payments, this is a much needed upgrade! Get Your Cosmic Mojo On About Money: The Next Best Thing to a Crystal Ball

Are you confused about what to do with your money based on the current state of affairs in our economy?

I'm sure you are well aware. You are NOT ALONE.

This weeks' Cosmic Mojo includes a 5 minute video explaining why I think astrology has some highly relevant and important helpful insights to be gleaned about our money issues. I will also touch on what astrology has led me to do with my money. It is not financial advice but rather to inform and educate. As the saying goes, "Knowledge is power."

The astrology of the US in 2022 is intense. Knowing about its cosmic nature may help you come to your own, as comfortable as possible, conclusions about what to do in confusing times. The link and passcode for the video is below.
