IRS announces withdrawal process for Employee Retention Credit claims; special initiative aimed at helping businesses concerned about an ineligible claim amid aggressive marketing, scams

As part of a larger effort to protect small businesses and organizations from scams, the Internal Revenue Service today announced the details of a special withdrawal process to help those who filed an Employee Retention Credit (ERC) claim and are concerned about its accuracy.

This new withdrawal option allows certain employers that filed an ERC claim but have not yet received a refund to withdraw their submission and avoid future repayment, interest and penalties. Employers that submitted an ERC claim that's still being processed can withdraw their claim and avoid the possibility of getting a refund for which they're ineligible.

The IRS created the withdrawal option to help small business owners and others who were pressured or misled by ERC marketers or promoters into filing ineligible claims. Claims that are withdrawn will be treated as if they were never filed.

The IRS will not impose penalties or interest. Those who willfully filed a fraudulent claim, or those who assisted or conspired in such conduct, should be aware that withdrawing a fraudulent claim will not exempt them from potential criminal investigation and prosecution.

The IRS is committed to helping small businesses and others caught up in this onslaught of Employee Retention Credit marketing. We continue to urge taxpayers to consult with a trusted tax professional rather than a marketing company about this complex tax credit. The IRS continues to warn taxpayers to use extreme caution before applying for the ERC as aggressive maneuvers continue by marketers and scammers.

The IRS is also working on guidance to help employers that were misled into claiming the ERC and have already received the payment. More details will be available this fall.

Who can ask to withdraw an ERC claim
Employers can use the ERC claim withdrawal process if all the following apply:

- They made the claim on an adjusted employment return (Forms 941-X, 943-X, 944-X, CT-1X).
- They filed the adjusted return only to claim the ERC, and they made no other adjustments.
- They want to withdraw the entire amount of their ERC claim.
- The IRS has not paid their claim, or the IRS has paid the claim, but they haven't cashed or deposited the refund check.

Taxpayers who are not eligible to use the withdrawal process can reduce or eliminate their ERC claim by filing an amended return. For details, see the Correcting an ERC claim - Amending a return section of the frequently asked questions about the ERC.

Both the October Lunar and the Solar Eclipse fall in astrological signs ruled by Venus, the planetary ruler of relationships and money. This article raises some pertinent questions to be asking yourself and is the preliminary announcement of an event on 12/12 expressly designed to support the mental, spiritual, and monetary well-being of readers of this newsletter.

Throughout the decades, during which I have been interpreting astrological charts, there have been a few times when, though predicted, nothing disruptive appears to happen that fit the warnings gleaned from the heavens. However, that is clearly the exception not the rule. Hopefully you will take heed. It is my hope that by sharing my life experience of seeing astrology really works and my acquired understanding how eclipses influence real life events will help alert you to pay attention now and if relevant take action. FYI: An excellent resource to understand eclipses can be found at: READ MORE

The 2023 Eclipses

- Hindsight 10/14: Regarding the month in advance of the October 14, 2023 Solar Eclipse September 14 – October 14
- October 14: New Moon Solar Eclipse in Libra ruled by Venus: Influencing Relationships and Money

Questions to ask yourself:

- Personal: Did something unexpected happen in a significant relationship?
- Did anything unexpected occur in your relationship to money?
- Important Astro Influences: Moving ahead for the next 6 months every time there is planetary impact to the 21st degree of Libra there will be an energetic pull to revisit any situation that impacted you during this eclipse season. Knowledge and awareness can be empowering.

Of Note: On the global level we are aware the Israeli war provocation happened during this time. Possible implications: War will go on for at least 6 months. Likely: Surprising and unexpected outcomes.

September 28 – October 28

- October 28: Full Moon Solar Eclipse in Taurus also a sign that is ruled by Venus: Influencing Relationships and Money

Of Note: The Taurus/Scorpio astrology chart locations for the Moon and the Sun respectively indicate that the Solar Eclipse falls on the money axis of everyone's astrology charts worldwide. This is the last time this energy will happen for about 7 - 8 years. Many financial pundits speculate that there will be a global monetary reset. It is reasonable to anticipate that the current astrological trends portend to expect some triggering event that will facilitate this is likely to happen in the coming 6 months. Thus...

A question to ask yourself:

- Personal: If something unexpected to the global economy happened and access to money were interrupted for a period of time (i.e. a week or more) am I positioned to sustain my lifestyle? Financial Frequency Guidance and Your General and Monetary Well-being 11/11 Health and Wellness at Carlin Park in Jupiter. At this multifaceted event orchestrated and planned by Jill DiSalvo and her nonprofit Vibration 432, Inc. you will have the opportunity to be exposed to and experience the services of many talented healing and well-being specialists. It is free to attend. Mark your calendars.

Coming Soon: An announcement of event a Financial Frequency readers will be welcome to attend on 12/12 virtual event with the focus of planning for stability and comfort for the coming 6 months. The event will be hosted by Nanette Saylor, Creativity Life Coach and me. We will address coming monetary concerns. FYI: Spiritually optimistic practitioners herald this coming time as a time when the consciousness of humanity will be elevated to serve the betterment of everyone. Whether you regard viewing the future as an inspiration or something to be concerned about it will serve you to stay alert to relationship and monetary happenings as we are likely to have not heard or experienced the end game of the October 2023 eclipse season. Stay tuned.

We look forward to seeing you at the Carlin Park Wellness Event!

On preparing to be surprised...

If you've lived through a few turns of the wheel of life, or more than a couple laps around the sun, then I imagine you've seen your share of surprises in life. When you take a minute to reflect on those experiences, you might even be able to see how you had some awareness of the pending shifts. And, if you're reading this message, you can also see that you weathered the storm somehow. As we all take heed of Hattie's messages gleaned from the cosmos and interpreted by her many, many years of astrology work, I find myself remembering one of life's most important lessons:

So, I invite you to remember that you get to choose who you are being and what you are doing when the chaos of the world gets overwhelming. Are you contributing to the chaos?

Or, are you gathering your supplies, your energetic tools, and taking refuge in a life boat so you can be safe riding the waves until the storm passes?

“What I do know is that your answers exist deep down inside of you.”

Everything Must Change (queue the soundtrack from Judy Collins, play button below):

And, let me be clear here...

Having faith and hope in the possibility that all will be well is not the same as hiding your head in the sand, or turning off the radio to ignore the storm warnings.

How do you tune into higher vibes of resilience, courage, fortitude, and strength? How are you anchoring your faith in a benevolent force for good even when you are presented with evidence of dark times?

None of these are “easy” questions and I am certain I don't have all of your answers.

What I do know is that your answers exist deep down inside of you.

You can find those answers using any of the tools available here in the Frequency 432 community.

If you're feeling called to find answers, I hope you'll choose to experiment with any of the healing tools available. Navigating change with grace and ease is one of my super-powers. Please reach out if you'd like to learn more. Time is passing. Change is coming. Will you be prepared?

P.P.S. For a more upbeat take on the pending cosmic shifts, I hope you'll enjoy another of my favorite 70's hits: The Age of Aquarius, by the 5th dimension.
