Friday Energy Frequency with Omie Spirit

Today is March 3rd 3/3 also known as Gimel, the third letter of the Hebrew alphabet, its a fascinating symbol that represents both material abundance and spiritual growth. In the system of Gematria, each letter has a numerical value, and Gimel has a value of 3, which is a sacred number representing creativity, manifestation inner knowledge and abundance.

To understand Gimel's correlation to money, wealth, and love, we can imagine the High Priestess, who sits on a majestic camel, as a personification of Gimel's energetic expression. The High Priestess is a symbol of intuition, mystery, and secrets, and she embodies the wisdom of the divine feminine.

The camel, on the other hand, represents prosperity and abundance. Camels are known for their ability to traverse difficult terrain and carry heavy loads, making them a valuable asset for traders and travelers. In ancient times, owning a camel was a sign of wealth and status.

When we combine these symbols, we get a powerful image of Gimel's energy, which can help us attract wealth and abundance into our lives. On March 3rd, 2023, we can tap into this energy by focusing our intentions on manifesting our desires and trusting our intuition to guide us towards our goals.

To benefit from Gimel's energy, we can take practical steps to increase our financial abundance, such as investing wisely, starting a new business, or asking for a raise. We can also cultivate our spiritual growth by practicing meditation, visualization, and gratitude, which will help us align with the universal flow of abundance.

Finally, we can use Gimel's energy to attract love and deepen our relationships. By embodying the qualities of the High Priestess, such as trust, intuition, and mystery, we can create a deep connection with ourselves and others, leading to greater happiness and fulfillment.

In conclusion, Gimel is a powerful symbol that represents both material and spiritual abundance. By embracing the energy of the High Priestess and the camel, we can attract wealth, prosperity, and love into our lives. On March 3rd, 2023, let us harness this energy and manifest our deepest desires with confidence and grace.

Hallelujah! March 7th Full Moon and Saturn enters Pisces

Yeah! Time to welcome in "go with the flow," water sign Piscean optimistic energy!!!

The March Full Moon is in Virgo. This means the source of the light is coming from the Sun in Pisces. The sign of Pisces is ruled by Neptune, that along with Jupiter, is the most optimism inspiring of planets. You can enhance the benefits of this time by using the Full Moon as an opportunity to honor the gifts of the Cosmos: light a candle, burn sage and cleanse your home, and/or attend a Full Moon Ceremony. Be creative. There are no limits to how you can choose in your own special way to connect with spirit.

Saturn has been in the sign of Aquarius for the past 2.5 years. While this, the taskmaster of the zodiac was in Aquarius, we were hit with the pandemic and forced to learn more about integrating the internet and technology into our lives. If you've been working hard on something for the past 2 years you now get to apply and appreciate your progress. Saturn in Pisces lets go of being concerned with forced to change and supports optimism and Cosmic ideals.

Added Piscean Umph

By entering Pisces Saturn joins Neptune, which is also in Pisces. Neptune, the ruler of the sign, thus offers extra help for turning imaginative dreams into realities. Then, to make the positive energy even bigger and better Saturn is positioned to be in harmony with Uranus. Expect to feel an uplifted sense of happy surprises.

March Magic: Cosmic FUN With Numbers

In the "Yes I Can" system, of using numbered cards to glean messages of direction and hope, if one receives a doubled number (11, 22, 33, 44, etc.) in "Yes I Can" it is called a "Cosmic Bonus". In numerology these doubled numbers are Master Numbers representing a higher octave (expression) of the base number.

A primary tenet of personal growth is that the first step is awareness. Thus, in the spirit of the uplifting energy that abounds at the beginning of March, I encourage you to tune into being aware of Master Numbers/Cosmic Bonuses in your everyday world. Most likely you will be surprised and amazed at how much positive Master Number energy you will find when you pay attention to it.
