INFLATION 101

By: Napkinfinance.com

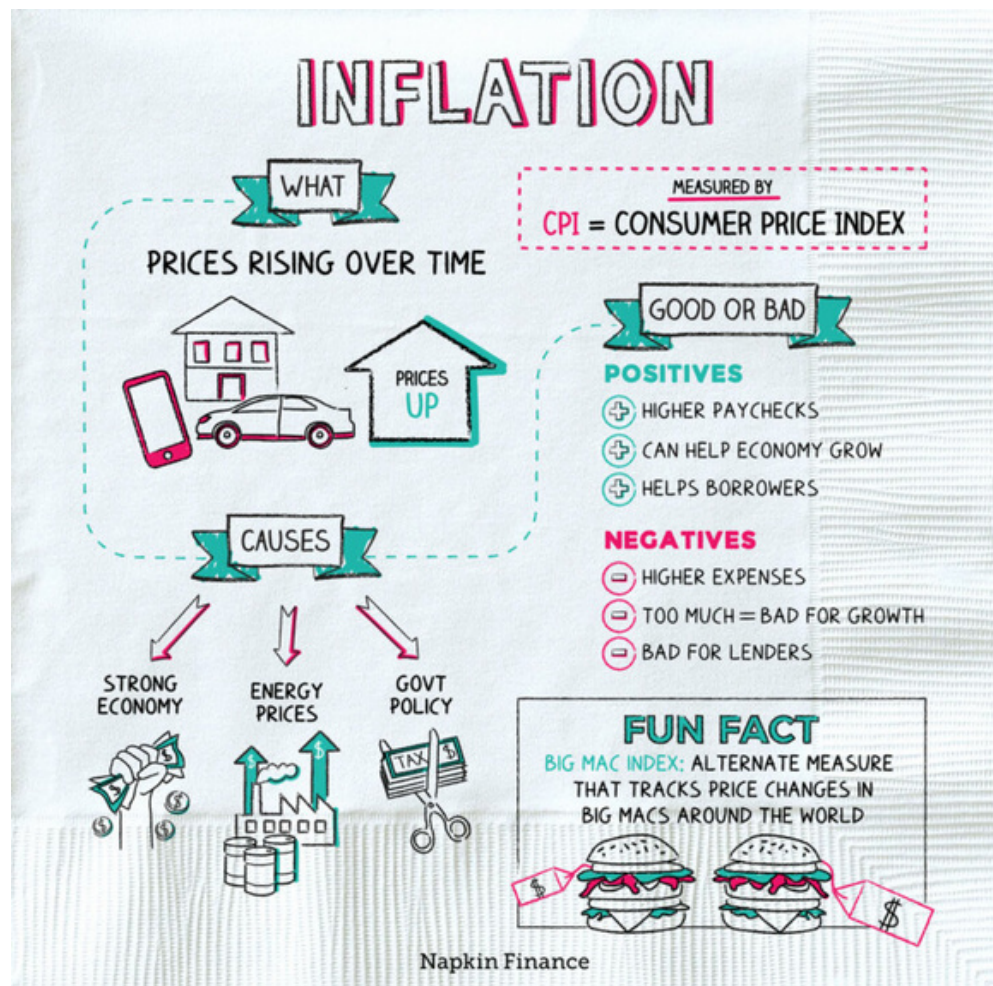

It seems that everyone is talking about rising gas prices and inflation and I came across this article on www.napkinfinance.com

Inflation is when prices of things rise over time.

For example, in 1980 you could buy a movie ticket for less than $3, while these days a ticket costs about $9 on average. Although it can feel bad when things become more expensive, it's pretty normal (healthy even) for an economy to experience a steady amount of low inflation.

"Inflation is when you pay fifteen dollars for the ten-dollar haircut you used to get for five dollars when you had hair."

Get Your Cosmic Mojo On Mars In Action: Make Your Mark

The Sun in astrology is about where you will "shine" in life, "Shining" could also be described and be associated with the question: Where will I make my mark in life? On March 20, astrological 2022 begins with the Sun moving into Aries, the fire sun sign ruled by Mars. This portends that the sun will light up the triplicity of all of the 3 of fire signs (Aries, Leo and Sagittarius). Aries is ruled by Mars – the planet of decisive action. The words mars and mark have the same root. Thus, we begin the astrological year in the sign that can be thought of as calling us to make our mark. Upon reflection we see all the fire signs suggest they are about making one's mark.

- Aries (ruled by Mars): Decisive action
- Leo (ruled by The Sun): The ability spread the light of The Universe
- Sagittarius (ruled by Jupiter) Being lucky

These attributes are most certainly all desirable qualities. They can inspire and help guide fire sign born people to embrace positive thoughts about how they can shine in life. These qualities are sufficiently positive to make one happy if one is a fire sign and potentially wish you were a fire sign if you are not.

The Water Signs -- Cancer, Scorpio, and Pisces. These signs encompass the following qualities:

- Cancer (The Moon): Loving nurturing caring, kindness
- Scorpio (Pluto): Profound in-depth understanding
- Pisces (Neptune): The ability to dream and make dreams come true

The Air Signs – Libra, Aquarius, and Gemini. These signs encompass the following qualities:

- Libra (Venus): Skillful and discerning relational abilities
- Aquarius (Uranus): Freedom loving innovative problem-solving
- Gemini (Mercury): An endless thirst for learning

The Earth Signs -- Capricorn, Taurus, Virgo. These signs encompass the following qualities:

- Capricorn (Saturn) An uncanny ability to get "things" accomplished effectively
- Taurus (Venus) A sense of beauty, value, and a gift for using it wisely
- Virgo (Mercury) Understanding that success is born through attention to detail

If you are a person wanting to be efficient and effective in making your mark in life I encourage you to take note of all 3 of the attributes of your elemental Sun Sign. Choose to embrace all 3 of them as guides and guidance for knowing where you will shine in life. I am, for example, a Libra, an Air Sign. It delights me to know that I have a meaningful connection to Aquarius. I have for a very long time wanted to produce a deck of cards that is an innovative approach to Tarot Card Reading. I am actively working on my cards and I now fully intend to transcend my ADHD tendencies that have kept me from succeeding for many (hmmm a Gemini influenced challenge that is accentuated because my Moon is in Gemini). It is time now for me to be making my mark by getting my product to market.

The past two years of many lives being disrupted by Covid have left plenty of us somewhat disoriented about what and who we are meant to be in life. I encourage you to discover that if you embrace the attributes of all 3 of the elemental signs that relate to your sun placement that you will find you have some helpful (perhaps even new) direction for sorting out the questions: Who am I? and What I am meant to be doing?

In Closing: Financial/Crypto Mojo

FYI: I listen every week to an hour and a half webinar presentation of a highly skilled geopolitical astrologer to guide me in what to be doing with my crypto investments. Not a week goes by that he does not continue to sing the praises of Bitcoin as a meaningful and safe haven investment that is expressly relevant to the times.

Not all of what he discusses applies to me. And, however, I like to be informed and pass on relevant information to others. I have been self-employed for the past 30 years. I cashed out the pension funds I accumulated before I started my self-employment many years ago. And, however, I have plenty of clients and friends who have pensions. In the most recent webinar he strongly recommended that everyone with a pension acquire and read the book Who Stole My Pension. One of the authors of this book is Robert Kiyosaki author of the best seller Rich Dad, Poor Dad. You can view a summary of the book Who Stole My Pension on YouTube at this link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4G>

If you have a pension, given the astrological pundit very positive review of the book, I suggest it is probably a – MUST READ.
